

Press Release

Free Advertising For Voluntary Organisations And Community Groups In Hailsham

Hailsham Town Council is inviting all non-profit-making organisations, voluntary groups, sports clubs and registered charities within Hailsham and surrounding villages to advertise themselves on its website and public notice-boards.

If your community group or charity offers a service that is of benefit to local residents, you can list details within the Council's promotional network free of charge. Hailsham Town Council will be happy to organise links from the Council website to your website.

Terry Hall, Hailsham Town Council's public information officer said, "There is always a need for local charities and voluntary organisations to look at ways to raise vital money or promote their fundraising activities, both of which may lead to increased membership and community involvement in their various projects. I would encourage all organisations to take advantage of this free advertising service."

To advertise your group for free and help individuals find out who you are, what you do and where you meet, contact Hailsham Town Council on 01323 841702 (during office hours), or send an email to terry.hall@hailshamtc.gov.uk.
