TOWN COUNCIL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Deputy Mayor to Attend Annual Colour Show

6 February 2017

The Hailsham Photographic Society is presenting its Annual Digital Audio-Visual Colour Show at Hailsham Civic Community Hall in Vicarage Lane on Friday 3rd March at 7.30pm and Saturday 5th March at 2.30pm and 7.30pm.

The Deputy Mayor of Hailsham, Councillor Amanda O'Rawe, will be attending the Friday evening performance and will present trophies to the winners.

The show is the Hailsham Photographic Society's annual competition for the Best Audio-Visual sequence (pre-judged) and has always been well supported by the local community. The Society has welcomed the Town Mayor in previous years to this major event in the Society's calendar, which has been held annually for over 40 years.

The Hailsham Photographic Society will be supporting MacMillan Nurses with a donation generated from overall ticket sales. Associates from the charity will be present at each of the three performances, where there will be an opportunity for fundraising and public awareness of the charity's operations and achievements to date.

The Deputy Mayor will present the cheque to the charity on the Society's behalf on Friday and propose a vote of thanks at the end of the evening.

Looking forward to the event, Councillor O'Rawe said: "I'm delighted to be attending the Friday evening exhibition and look forward to meeting the competition entrants and viewing their individual sequences."

"The Annual Colour Show is intended to show members of the public what the Hailsham Photographic Society is all about, showcasing the extraordinary diversity and breadth of talent within their group. I would encourage as many people as possible to come along to this event and see these amazing images for themselves."

"I am equally as delighted to hear that the Society has chosen this year to make a donation from proceeds to MacMillan Nurses. The funds raised during the Show will help the nurses to continue their good work - giving advice to other healthcare professionals and supporting people with cancer to understand their treatment options."

Tickets cost £6 (for all performances) and are available in advance from Society members and from The Camera Centre in Hailsham High Street or The Nodding Cobbler in Vicarage Field.

The Hailsham Photographic Society is always delighted to receive new members and invite the public to attend one of their meetings where you can be sure of a warm welcome. For further details, email info@hailshamphotographicsociety.co.uk.
