To discuss the organisation of Remembrance Day

- L. Snowdon advised that the Order of Service is currently being organised
- J. Harrison confirmed the wreath laying letter would be sent to all organisations that week
- St John Ambulance have been booked for the event
- C. Bryant stated he would be meeting with the Cadets in late September
- It was noted the work to the War Memorial has been approved by the Conservation Officer at Wealden. They have requested a patch test to be carried out before the work begins. The patch test will be organised as soon as possible
- K. Giddings confirmed she would order 20 of the large poppies and long cable ties
- L. Snowdon stated she will ask the Cadets to drum on the day
- J. Harrison requested a map of the layout of the barriers on the day.

L. Snowdon stated she will send a map to K. Giddings

- L. Snowdon advised that St John Ambulance will be able to have access to the Hailsham Club on the day, to use as a base

There being no further business the meeting closed at 5.40 pm.
